PEARL OF THE

Orient

If Penang is the food capital of Malaysia, Gurney Drive is arguably the best of Penang on a plate. The popular seafront promenade exemplifies the colors and atmosphere of Penang – fun, lively and vibrant. Also known by its Malay name, “Persiaran Gurney”, Gurney Drive offers delightful street and high-end cuisine. Fort Cornwallis, named after the Governor-General in Bengal in the late 1700s, Charles Cornwallis, is one of the most interesting historical landmarks in Georgetown. It is located close to the Esplanade, next to the Victoria Memorial Clock.

Pinang Peranakan Mansion The Pinang Peranakan Mansion is a stately mansion, refurbished to reflect bygone days of the Straits Chinese settlement in Penang. This magnificent townhouse is the former residence and office of Chinese Kapitan Chung Keng Kwee. He was a 19th century Hakka tin-miner and secret society leader of Hai San, Batu Ferringhi, situated along the coastal road north-west of Georgetown and lined with a string of international- standard resorts, is the most popular beach in Penang. Soak in the sun or unwind on the beach while you enjoy a host of aquatic thrills from wind-surfing to canoeing.

For a spine-tingling adventure, try parasailing to enjoy the view of the beach from the sky. Many more attractions in Penang yet to explore.

Langkawi Legend

Off the coast of Kedah is a cluster of 99 islands offering the best of many worlds: beautiful beaches, world- class infrastructure, mangroves rich in flora and fauna, ultra-cheap duty-free shopping and fascinating legends. Langkawi has a lingering legend woven into its history. Ask anyone on the island about the tragic story of a beautiful young lady named Mahsuri, and you'll hear a tale of love, jealousy and a curse that was placed upon the island by her for seven generations. Today, the seventh generation of Langkawi's inhabitants has long come and gone, but people here still believe that the prosperity and blessings the islands enjoy today and the passing of the curse is no mere coincidence. The mysticism of this legend can be felt in many parts of this island, especially at Makam Mahsuri (Mahsuri's Mausoleum), where Mahsuri is said to be buried. Despite what looks like a slant towards tourism, many of the islanders are actually farmers, fishermen and entrepreneurs.

Experience the beautiful countryside and peaceful landscape of paddy fields by renting a car and taking a leisurely drive around the island. Some of Langkawi's most rustic and memorable views are along the road that circles the island. You'll pass small villages with wooden houses framed by palm trees, and children pedaling their old bicycles on errands. Aside from experiencing the local lifestyle, there is no shortage of things to do in Langkawi. Head up the thrilling new cable car to the summit of Mount Mat Cincang - Langkawi's second highest mountain - for an unrivalled view of the entire main island and beyond. Other popular destinations are the Field of Burnt Rice, Hot Springs, Telaga Tujuh (The Seven Wells) and the Beach of Black Sand. Boat tours are organized to Tasik Dayang Bunting (Lake of the Pregnant Maiden), Gua Cerita (Cave of Stories) and Gua Langsir (Curtain Cave).

For a more intimate time with nature, go trekking through the pristine rainforest that covers most of Langkawi, or go on a boat tour of the mangroves. There are also opportunities to go for a dive, or play a round of golf at some of the 5-star resorts. Langkawi also has an underwater world, with an underground tunnel that runs through a giant aquarium, that has received rave reviews.

MAGICAL MOMENT IN HONG KONG DISNEYLAND

One of America's most famous cultural exports finally landed in Hong Kong in late 2005. It's divided into four main areas – Main Street USA, Fantasyland, Adventure land and Tomorrow land – but don't expect too much. This is a very small-scale Disney franchise although there are plans to expand it with a solitary real adrenaline-inducing roller coaster ride (Space Mountain), while the rest of the park is made up of tamer attractions and of course is crammed with outlets selling Disney merchandise and fast food and halal cuisine. There's plenty for younger children to enjoy, including the full complement of Disney characters patrolling the park and the odd show re-creating great Disney moments from films such as Pirates of the Caribbean, but take teenagers along and you may face a mutiny. The resurgent Ocean Park offers vastly more variety, thrills and amusement for all ages.

EMBRACING Generosity

Joyous times during Hari Raya Celebrations-but what does it all mean?

Eid al-Fitr was originated by the Islamic prophet Muhammad. It is observed on the first of the month of Shawwal at the end of the month of Ramadan, during which Muslims undergo a period of fasting. History tells when the Prophet arrived in Madinah, he found people celebrating a specific days in which they used to entertain themselves with recreation and merriment. He asked them about the nature of these festivities at which they replied that these days were occasions of fun and recreation. At this, the Prophet remarked that the Allah has fixed one day of festivity which is Eid al-Fitr. Eid al-Fitr or commonly known as Hari Raya Aidilfitri in Malaysia is a celebration that marks the end of Ramadhan, which is the Islamic holy month of fasting. After 29 or 30 days of fasting from dawn to sunset, Muslims worldwide unite to celebrate this religious holiday. The significance behind fasting is to show empathy towards the poor, to be grateful for what we have and to display behavior traits such as steadfastness, patience and humility. It also teaches Muslims to stay away from worldly desires and to focus entirely on Allah and be thankful for his blessings. Muslims usually start the day by congregating in the mosques early in the morning to perform Hari Raya Puasa prayers followed by visits to the graves of the departed.

In Malaysia, it is customary for individuals to return to their hometown to celebrate with their families and to ask for forgiveness from parents, in-laws and elders. Scrumptious dishes are served such as ketupat, rending, lemang and other little tidbits, known as kuih muih. People often set aside a time for an 'open house' where family and friends are invited over to eat and celebrate. It is customary for Muslim-Malaysians to wear their traditional garments during Eid al-Fitr. For women, they wear baju kurung or baju kebaya whereas the men traditionally wear baju melayu with a kain sampan or songket and a songkok (headwear). By tradition, children are given little sums of money, known as duit raya from their parents or elders.

The Hari Raya celebration lasts for a month but the first three days are the most celebrated and are mainly spent with immediate family and close relatives and friends. This is the time to show our happiness, to give as much charity as is possible, to perform Eid salaat and to read the takbirat in an open field. On Eid day before prayers, people distribute a charity locally known as "fitra". Many people also avail themselves of this opportunity to distribute zakat, an Islamic obligatory tax of 2.5% of one's annual savings, to the needy. Zakat is often distributed in the form of food and new clothes.

Lush greenery, scenic views, rich culture and adventurous activities awaits you in Sabah. With a rich history and a very popular destination for adventurers and nature lovers, Sabah offers pristine national parks and is famous for its eco-tourism. Not only can you find the world's largest flower here, the Rafflesia; Mount Kinabalu, which is the highest mountain in the Malay Archipelago is also located in Sabah. Ranging from hiking to white water rafting to diving, one of the world's top dive sites is found on the east coast of Sabah Kinabalu Park, the entrance to Mount Kinabalu, is located at 1,585 meters above sea level and is the main starting point for the summit trail that leads to the top of Mount Kinabalu. It covers an area of 754sq km and is made up of Mount Kinabalu, Mount Tambayukon and the foothills. The mountains have a fascinating geological history, taking 'just' a million years to form. The mighty Mount Kinabalu is actually a granite massif that was later thrust upwards through the crust of the surface. The Rainforest Discovery Centre (RDC) in Sepilok, Sandakan is part of the Kabili-Sepilok Forest Reserve – home to the Sepilok Orang Utan Rehabilitation Centre. Located in Sabah, it is one of the state's most popular environmental education (EE) centers today. Take a stroll through the forest or walk along the 147-meter long canopy walkway and enjoy a spectacular view of the beautiful rainforest - 28 meters above ground. Night walks along the trail also offer visitors a chance to catch a glimpse of the wildlife that have made the rainforest their home, such as the cunning mouse deer, wily civet cats, cute tarsiers and various insects and birds. For flora lovers, there are many magnificent sights to behold at the Plant Discovery Garden, with about 250 species of native orchids in bloom. The orchid family is known to be the largest flowering plant throughout the world with about 25,000 wild species in total.

The best times to visit the 'Wild Men of Borneo' are at 10am and again, at 2.30pm when the primates emerge from the forest for their daily ration of bananas and milk. Watch as the orang utans are fed from a platform in the centre and then returned to roam freely in the forest where they can fend for themselves. Aside from orang utans, over 200 species of birds and a variety of wild plants can be found within the 5,666ha. forest reserve. With a large variety of activities to choose from, Sabah caters to all the needs of its visitors. For the city lovers, Sutra's Free & Easy Tour would suit perfectly – with stopovers to the Sabah Museum, Poh Toh Tse Temple and includes sightings of the State Mosque, Tun Mustapha Tower and City Mosque. For a more nature-inspired vacation, visitors may choose the Fascinating Sabah Tour, which involves a scenic 3-hour mountainous drive along the countryside, a stopover at the Poring Hot Springs, a visit to the exhilarating treetop canopy walkway and a journey to Kinabalu National Park. Beautiful memories will surely be captured here, that even a camera could not do justice.

Pengalaman menakjubkan di Tanah Suci

Pengalaman saya dan keluarga ketika mengerjakan umrah bersama Mr. Agil berbangsa Indonesia yang telah menetap lama di bumi Arab. Kepuasan kami terhadap penempatan hotel 5 bintang , pengangkutan serta perjalanan melancong ke tempat-tempat bersejarah antaranya di Madinah , kami dibawa melawat Masjid Awan, Masjid Quba, Masjid E-Ali, Bukit Uhud ,tempat Saidina Abu Bakar dilantik sebagai Khalifah, taman hijau yang satu-satunya berada di Madinah, perkuburan Al-Baqi menempatkan sahabat-sahabat rasulullah.

Kami dilayan mesra dan dijaga baik oleh pemandu pelancong bernama Mr. Agil berbangsa Indonesia yang telah menetap lama di bumi Arab. Kepuasan kami terhadap penempatan hotel 5 bintang , pengangkutan serta perjalanan melancong ke tempat-tempat bersejarah antaranya di Madinah , kami dibawa melawat Masjid Awan, Masjid Quba, Masjid E-Ali, Bukit Uhud ,tempat Saidina Abu Bakar dilantik sebagai Khalifah, taman hijau yang satu-satunya berada di Madinah, perkuburan Al-Baqi menempatkan sahabat-sahabat rasulullah.

Di Mekah kami ditempatkan pula di sebuah hotel Swisotel bertaraf lima bintang yang kedudukannya berhadapan di Masjidil Haram. Penempatan ini memudahkan kami mengerjakan umrah dengan selesa dengan bimibingan Mutawif yang berasal dari Mekah. Kami juga dibawa melawat ke Gua Hira, Jabal Nur, Arafat, Mina, Muzdalifah Gua Tur dan lain-lain lagi.

Walaupun perjalanan kami sepanjang di Mekah berjalan dengan baik , cuma harapan kami agar di masa hadapan lebih banyak lawatan dan info terhadap kawasan yang dilawati dan berharap sangat agar dibawa juga melawat ke tempat pembuatan kitab Al-Quran dan Kilang menjahit kain Kiswah Kaabah.

Saya dan keluarga ingin mengucapkan ribuan terima kasih kepada pihak SRI SUTRA TRAVEL yang telah memberi pakej lawatan yang memuaskan. Dengan harapan agar SRI SUTRA TRAVEL terus bergerak maju ke persada dunia.

Dear Mr Adzim,

As your know, on 30 Mei'13 I'm taking the 4D3N HO CHI MINH MUSLIM PACKAGE for 5 of my family members. I want to give a many thank to you and Sri Sutra Travel assist me and arrange my tour to Ho Chi Minh. I'm very satisfied with your service in term of the hotel you offer to us, tour activity, delicious meals and friendly tour guide in Ho Chi Minh. We are very enjoying during the tour without have any problem to find the halal food in Vietnam as you know Vietnam is not a muslim country. Other than that the itinerary you suggest to us is suitable and interesting because we spend all our time during the tour with an interesting activity and shopping.

Again thank you to Sri Sutra Travel to offer us an interesting package and hope you can offer to us with another destination package in the future.

Thank you,
Ms Fatin Nur Faeizah

Dear Ms.Eqa,

We wanted to thank to Ms.Eqa for making our honeymoon a dream, we enjoyed every moment, every smile, every person everything was very special for us. The resort that you suggest is beautiful, we had a great time. We're already recommending the resort to our friends. My husband & I spent our first 2 nights of our honeymoon on Barefoot Cay & as soon as we stepped foot on this beautiful resort we asked if our bungalow was available for another night (sadly, it wasn't). The staff was excellent - all smiles & very helpful! We couldn't get enough of the pier out to the ocean or the pool! We wanted privacy - and you get a lot of it on Barefoot Cay. I think the entire time we were there we only saw 3 other guests! The bungalow was exactly what we wanted, with the most comfortable bed I've ever slept on. We didn't leave the Cay - ate every meal on site & it was not only beautifully prepared, but absolutely delicious with great portions. We had nothing but great things to say.
